Proposals for Supplies—Mint of the United States, Superintendent's office, Carson City, Nevada, May 13th, 1890. Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned until 12 o'clock (noon), on the 20th day of June 1890, for furnishing such supplies as may be required from time to time by the Mint during the two months ending June 30th, 1891, embracing acids and other chemicals, wax, charcoal, salt, borax, soap, oils, crucibles, covers, stirrers, buckles, cotton cloth, dry goods, metals, hardware and other necessary supplies.

Schedules and blank forms for proposals of each article that will probably be required, will be furnished on application. Proposals will be considered separately on each article, and upon comparison of the prices and samples of articles furnished, and will be accepted as to whole or a part, as may be deemed for the best interest of the government, the right to reject any or all proposals being reserved.

Equilibrium will be made on the parties whose bids may be accepted, and the articles must be furnished as required without delay.

Proposals, to receive consideration, must be accompanied by a sufficient bond with one or more sureties, and by samples of such description of the articles as will clearly designate the kind and quality. Proposals should be addressed to the undersigned and enclosed with a copy of this advertisement in a sealed envelope, on which "Proposals for Supplies" shall be written. The bids will be opened at the hour named in the presence of the bidders and officers of the Mint.
